MANY STRIKING DANCES FOR "LE JOUR FERIE"

HERE are signs of a waning season and there remain before us more than three weeks to round off the gayeties of the winter; but it does not appear that there will be altogether a cessation of social activity during Lent, as numerous entertainments are being arranged for next month and the early part of March. Easter will fall on April 4 and there may be a continuation of gayety just after that feast day, as there will be European exodus this year, and by that time the season is over in the South.

The Florida resorts and California will be much favored by those who about this time of the year have been accustomed to go to Egypt, Algiers or the south of France, and while it is still a long way off, the summer season at the famous resorts should be of unusual prosperity, considering that there is nothing for people to do but remain in the United States. should the war cease this spring there would be almost no inducement to go abroad for diversion or the seeking of health.

The one large dance of last week was given by Mr. and Mrs. Columbius O'Donnell Iselin for their daughter, Miss Adrienne Iselin. They invited to Sherry's not only the debutantes of the winter party, but also many of their married friends, who gave the desired stability to the party, and it was really rather a relief to see others besides the younger generation, who have been so much to the fore all winter. Notable dinners were given by Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, whose guests included Mr. and Mrs. Myron T. Herrick, Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mrs. A. Murray Young and Mrs. Orme Wilson. Mrs. Brabish Johnson and Mrs. Francis De R. Wissmann gave large dinners on Wednesday night as a preliminary to the dance of Mr. and Mrs. Iselin.
